HOW WE USE PUPIL INFORMATION

Under data protection/General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) law Lakes Academies Trust and each school within the Trust has certain obligations as a data controller of personal information. This document is intended to make clear what information we hold, the purpose for us holding that information and our obligations in relation to it, and also make you aware of your rights as data subjects.

DATA CATEGORIES

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address).
- Parent/Carer information (such as name(s), address, telephone numbers).
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility).
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons including any exclusions).
- Assessment information (such as periodic teacher judgements on progress etc. and also examination results).
- Medical information (any relevant medical conditions or treatments and a log of any incidents/illnesses that we are aware of that occurred in school).
- Behaviour (record of behaviour events associated with a child in line with the academy's Behaviour for Learning Policy).
- SEN (record of any Special Education Needs along with associated observations, strategies and learning plans).
- Use of internet and ICT resources (to ensure safe and appropriate use of resources)
- Pastoral (record of personal, social (well being) and academic events to support the needs of students)

WHY WE COLLECT AND USE THIS INFORMATION

We use the pupil data:

- to safeguard pupils
- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us for DfE data collections

THE LAWFUL BASIS ON WHICH WE USE THIS INFORMATION

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing pupil information are:

- 1(b) processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;
- 1(c) processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject;
- 1(d) processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person;
- 1(e) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

Where we process special categories of personal data we do so under obligations covered in Article 9 of GDPR:

- 2(g) – the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.
- Where the above do not apply the academy will seek consent for specific purposes in line with the following Article 6.1.a.
- 1(a) the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes.

This will be done in writing and will clearly define any other uses of personal information and ask for consent for each and every use.

COLLECTING PUPIL INFORMATION

We collect pupil information via new starter registration forms, Common Transfer File (CTF) or secure file transfer from previous school. We will also collect data as required via forms, for example trips.

Pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

STORING PUPIL DATA

We hold pupil data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention policy.

WHO WE SHARE PUPIL INFORMATION WITH

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Schools/other educational establishments that the student's attend after leaving the academy;
- Lakes Academies Trust;
- Relevant Local Authority;
- The Department for Education (DfE);
- The NHS;
- School Meals Service;

WHY WE SHARE PUPIL INFORMATION

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

DATA COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools

THE NATIONAL PUPIL DATABASE (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the Department's data sharing process, please visit:

www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data

For information about which organisations the Department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website:
